Remarks.

Accounts are payable half-yearly, strictly in advance. If payment is deferred without satisfactory understanding with the Rev. Superior, interest is added and the student may be discharged from the Institution.

Monthly remittance may be allowed upon application but no discount on semester charges is made on account of absence or departure except in case of sickness.

Athletic and Library fees are payable by each student at the beginning of every year.

Students who wish to remain at the College during the Christmas and Easter Holidays are to pay one dollar a day.

Books and class supplies are charged to the students. Some books may be rented.

Boarders are required to furnish their own towels and napkins, as well as a complete set of toilet articles. Every one should have, on entering, at least two suits of clothing, one for daily wear, and one for Sundays. It is also desirable that students bring with them two pairs of shoes, a pair of rubbers, one overcoat and a sufficient number of shirts, underwear, socks or stockings, handkerchiefs, etc. All linen should be marked with the student's name.

There is a limited number of private rooms, exclusively reserved for students in the Collegiate Department. Early application is desirable.

Physician's fees and medical expenses must be paid by the students.

Students are expected to pay for any damage done through their negligence to the furniture or other property.

No advance of money for clothing or other expenses is made by the Treasurer unless a sum for that purpose is deposited with him.

The College does not assume the responsibility for money, or any object at the pupil's disposal, unless deposited with the Treasurer; or for any article lost through fire or any other accident.

The parents are requested to entrust the Treasurer or one of the teachers with any money intended for the personal use of their children. No money will be advanced for this purpose, as we prefer to leave the matter entirely and directly between the parents or guardians and the students.

No student shall be granted any Degree, Diploma or Credit, whose financial obligations towards the College have not been fulfilled.
